

SUBJECT: 2006 DVHCV Scholarship Recipients Announced

The Deerfield Valley Health Care Volunteers (DVHCV), sponsors of Art on the Mountain, are happy to announce the 2006 DVHCV Scholarship Recipients. Scholarships are awarded (up to $1000) to local students pursuing careers in the health care industry. Congratulations to this year's recipients They are:

Katharine Murphy of Wilmington, is pursuing a career in professional nursing and is currently attending Simmons College in Boston.

Tracie Crawford of Jacksonville, studying for a BSN. at SVC in Bennington.

Holly Stradecki of Whitingham, will be training in Physical Therapy at UVM

Colleen Doyle-Legg of Wilmington will be pursuing a career as an RN at Vermont Tech in Brattleboro.

Jenne Wax of Wilmington, will be studying Medicine at UVM College of Medicine.

Jared Baker of Wilmington is looking forward to becoming a Physician's Assistant and is attending Quinnipiac University.

Hannah Briggs of Whitingham is studying Office Technology - medical office management at the NH Community Technical College

Christina Whitney of Wilmington is pursuing an Associate degree in Nursing at the Coastal Carolina Community College

Sarah Staib of Wilmington is training to become an LPN at VT Tech.

Danielle Covey of Wilmington, will be studying for a B.S.N. at SVC.

Gillian Boyd of Wilmington is studying to become a Physician's Assistant at the University of New England.

Miranda Andrews of Wilmington is attending Arizona State University working towards a BSN

The DVHCV is a not-for-profit organization which raises money through volunteer efforts for the benefit of the Deerfield Valley communities—Wilmington, Whitingham, Halifax, Readsboro, Dover and Wardsboro. Art on the Mountain yields the bulk of the scholarship money. For further information or details please contact Lynn Redd at 464-7392.